Background

The Commercial Horticulture and Agricultural Marketing Program (CHAMP) started in 2010 to reduce poverty among rural Afghan farmers by helping them shift from relatively low-value subsistence crops, such as wheat and corn, to high-value perennial crops such as fruits and vegetables. CHAMP has worked in half of the provinces of Afghanistan, establishing fruit orchards, providing training in best agricultural practices, building storage facilities such as cool rooms and raisin drying facilities, and helping grape farmers convert from traditional ground-based vineyards to higher output trellis systems.

Under its current extension of the Cooperative Agreement from 2017-2019, CHAMP is providing focused attention to supply chain, marketing, and export promotion of Afghan fresh and dry fruits and nuts to international markets. CHAMP continues to provide support to traders and the trade offices established in New Delhi, India and Dubai, UAE to promote Afghan agricultural products and boost their export from Afghanistan. CHAMP has expanded the focus from the previous six high-value crops and included all high-value horticultural crops suitable for export. CHAMP is helping Afghan traders and agribusinesses export up to 15,000 metric tons (MT) of high-value crops annually to wholesale markets and supermarkets in the region by focusing on two major components: 1) Supply Chain Improvement 2) Export Market Development to strengthen commercial horticultural exports from Afghanistan. To facilitate trade facilitation services and export promotion, CHAMP is working with participating traders, relevant government and non-governmental institutions, and other donor projects to provide assistance with trade credit, food safety and quality certification and compliance with international market standards and to improve cold storage and packing houses. CHAMP also enhances the capacity of local packaging manufacturers and freight and logistics facilitators to promote agricultural trade from Afghanistan.

Roots of Peace History

Founder Heidi Kuhn became gravely aware of landmines, and their lasting effects on economies, upon the tragic death of Princess Diana in 1997. Motivated by the Princess’s compassion and commitment to global demining, Kuhn began Roots of Peace in honor of Diana’s memory and to ensure that her work would continue. Heidi’s vision was to turn MINES TO VINES by replacing the scourge of landmines with bountiful vineyards worldwide. Initial support from the California wine industry helped turn Heidi’s dreams into a reality.

With funding from the public and private sector and countless generous donors, Roots of Peace has worked in numerous continents to bring economic empowerment to populations living in post-conflict regions. We have raised both awareness and funds to remove one million landmines and UXO worldwide and plant over five million trees to give farmers access to land that was previously deemed too dangerous to develop. To ensure economic development, we work beyond demining and assist farmers so that they have the tools and resources to grow, market and sell their products effectively and efficiently. We bring dignity to farmers and families living on war-torn lands for future generations to thrive.

General Conditions

1.1 Agreement Funding and Type
ROP, on behalf of USAID and in cooperation with the Government of Afghanistan, is authorized to fund this Agreement under the authority of ROP's prime USAID Contract No. 306-A-00-10-00512-00, funded by the US Government. ROP will not adjust the agreement price due to fluctuations in currency exchange rates. ROP will only make changes in the agreement price or time to complete due to changes made by ROP or by delays caused by ROP.

1.2 Modifications
Modifications to the terms and conditions of this Agreement may only be made by written agreement between authorized personnel of both Parties, and shall not be effective until the consent of USAID, if applicable, has been obtained. Each Party shall give due notice and consideration to any proposals for modification made by the other Party.

1.3 Relationship between the Parties
Nothing contained herein shall be understood or implied as establishing a relationship of master and servant or principal and agent between ROP and the Seller. The Seller, under this agreement, has complete charge of its personnel and any second tier Sellers, if any are allowed, performing under this agreement and shall be fully responsible for the services performed by them or on their behalf.

1.4 Taxes and Duties
The services performed under this Agreement are funded by the United States Government and shall, therefore, be exempt from payment of any taxes, duties, fees, levies, and any other impositions for which ROP is exempt, during the period of performance of this Agreement. The Seller shall not pay any host country taxes, duties, levies, etc. from which this USAID program is exempt pursuant to the February 7, 1951 Agreement between the United States of America and Afghanistan. The Seller shall immediately notify ROP if any such taxes are assessed against the Seller or its Sellers at any tier. The Seller is responsible for payment of all applicable taxes, as prescribed under the applicable laws, associated with wages/salaries/compensation for services rendered by individuals employed by the Seller and who are directed to work as required under this Agreement.

1.5 Force Majeure
For the purposes of this Agreement, “Force Majeure” means an event or events either of nature or caused by man, which is beyond the reasonable control of a Party—that is, either ROP or the Seller—and which makes a Party’s performance of its obligations under the Agreement impossible. In no event can a Force Majeure event be caused by the negligence or intentional action of a Party or such Party’s Sellers or agents or employees. Any Force Majeure event must be an event that a diligent Party could not have reasonably expected and could not have taken action to mitigate or avoid such circumstances which prevent the Party from carrying out its obligations hereunder. Force Majeure causes may include—but are not restricted to—fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, freight embargoes, and unusually severe weather, but in every case the failure to perform must be beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Seller.

The failure of a Party to fulfill any of its obligations hereunder shall not be considered to be a breach of, or default under, this Agreement insofar as such inability arises from an event of Force Majeure, provided that the Party affected by such an event (a) has taken all reasonable precautions, due care and reasonable alternative measures in order to carry out the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (b) has informed the other Party as soon as possible, but not longer than five (5) days after such occurrence.

Any time extensions resulting from a Force Majeure in which a Party could not complete an action or task shall be for the period of time equal to the time the Party was unable to perform due to the Force Majeure event.

1.6 Termination
ROP reserves the unilateral right to terminate this Agreement at any time, paying for all product delivered at the time of termination, in accordance with FAR Clause 52.249-1, Termination for Convenience of the Government (April 1984).

1.7 Authorized USAID Geographic Code
All goods and services supplied under this order must meet USAID Geographic Code 935 (Special Free World) requirements as described in the Code of Federal Regulations: 22 CFR §228. No commodities, items with components from, or related services may be offered from the following countries: Cuba, Iran, Libya, North...
Korea, and Syria. Related services include transportation through, in coordination with or any related or incidental services pertaining to any/all aspects of this Agreement (including fuel, lodging, meals, board, and communications expenses).

1.8 Indemnity and Seller Waiver of Benefits
(a) The Seller waives any additional benefits and agrees to indemnify and save harmless USAID and ROP, their officers, directors, agents, and employees from and against any and all claims and liability, loss, expenses, suits, damages, judgments, demands, and costs (including reasonable legal and professional fees and expenses) arising out of:

(1) the acts or omissions of Seller, its employees, officers, directors, agents or its Sellers;

(2) injury or death to persons, including officers, directors, employees, agents and Sellers of Seller, or loss of or damage to property, or fines and penalties which may result, in whole or in part, by reason of the buying, selling, distribution, or use of any of the goods or services purchased or provided under this Agreement except to the extent that such damage is due to the negligence of ROP;

(3) the infringement or violation of any patent, copyright, trademark, service mark, trade secret, or other proprietary interest of any third party resulting from ROP’s use, distribution, sale, sublicensing, or possession of the goods (including software and all forms of written materials) or services purchased or provided, as authorized hereunder, or from the use or possession of said goods or services by USAID, as authorized hereunder; or false claims submitted by Seller or its Sellers under this Agreement or as a result of a Seller misrepresentation of fact or fraud by Seller.

(b) Seller shall defend and settle at its sole expense all suits or proceedings arising out of the foregoing, provided that Seller has notice or is given prompt written notice of such claim or suit and, further, that Seller shall be given necessary information, reasonable assistance and the authority to defend such claim or suit. Seller shall not settle, compromise or discharge any pending or threatened suit, claim or litigation, arising out of, based upon, or in any way related to the subject matter of this Agreement and to which ROP is or may reasonably be expected to be a party, unless and until Seller has obtained a written agreement, approved by ROP (which shall not be unreasonably withheld) and executed by each party to such proposed settlement, compromise or discharge, releasing ROP from any and all liability.

(c) If any of the goods or services provided by Seller hereunder, including without limitation software and all forms of written materials, become the subject of a claim of infringement or violation of a third party's intellectual property, privacy and/or proprietary rights, Seller shall, at its own expense, use its best efforts--

(1) to procure for ROP the right to continue use and, if authorized under this Agreement, distribution of the infringing goods or services or,

(2) to modify the goods or services to make them non-infringing, or to replace them with equivalent, non-infringing counterparts. If none of the above mentioned can be successfully implemented, then Seller shall refund to ROP all monies paid to the Seller for the infringing goods and services.

1.9 Compliance with Applicable Laws and Standards
The Seller shall perform all work in accordance with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, regulations, and other authoritative rules of the United States and with the standards of relevant licensing boards and professional associations. Such an organizational conflict of interest may impair the objectivity of the Seller or its personnel in performing the work. To preclude or mitigate any potential conflicts of interest, Seller agrees not to undertake any activity which may result in an

When the Seller has reasonable grounds to believe that a violation described in paragraph (b) of this provision may have occurred, the Seller shall promptly report in writing the possible violation. Such reports shall be made to ROP, who shall forward the report to the USAID Inspector General for investigation. The Seller further agrees to cooperate fully with any United States Government agency investigating a possible violation described in paragraph (b) of this clause. ROP may offset the amount of the kickback against any monies owed by ROP under this fixed price Agreement or order the monies withheld from future payments due the Seller. (3) Restricted Commodities. The seller must obtain prior written approval of the ROP-CHAMP or comply with required procedures under an applicable waiver, as provided by the ROP-CHAMP when procuring any of the following commodities:

c. Source and Nationality:

Except as may be specifically approved in advance by the ROP-CHAMP, all commodities and services that will be reimbursed by ROP-CHAMP under this award must be from the authorized geographic code specified in this award and must meet the source and nationality requirements set forth in 22 CFR 228. If the geographic code is not specified, the authorized geographic code is 935. When the total value of procurement for commodities and services during the life of this award is valued at $250,000 or less, the authorized geographic code for procurement of all goods and services to be reimbursed under this award is code 935. For a current list of countries within each geographic code, see: http://inside.usaid.gov/ADS/300/310.pdf.

d. Guidance on the eligibility of specific commodities and services may be obtained from the ROP-CHAMP. If ROP-CHAMP determines that the seller has procured any commodities or services under this award contrary to the requirements of this provision, and has received payment for such purposes, the ROP-CHAMP may require the seller to refund the entire amount of the purchase.

1.21 Debarment, Suspension, and Other Responsibility Matters USNGO (JUN 2012)

a. The seller agrees to notify ROP-CHAMP immediately upon learning that it or any of its principals:

(1) Are presently excluded or disqualified from covered transactions by any Federal department or agency;

(2) Have been convicted within the preceding three-year period preceding this proposal; been convicted of or had a civil judgment rendered against them for commission of fraud or a criminal offense in connection with obtaining, attempting to obtain, or performing a public (Federal, State, or local) transaction or contract under a public transaction; violation of Federal or State antitrust statutes or commission of embezzlement, theft, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, making false statements, tax evasion, receiving stolen property, making false claims, or obstruction of justice; commission of any other offense indicating a lack of business integrity or business honesty that seriously and directly affects your present responsibility;

(4) Have had one or more public transactions (Federal, State, or local) terminated for cause or default within the preceding three years.

b. The recipient agrees that, unless authorized by the ROP-CHAMP, it will not knowingly enter into any subawards or contracts under this award with a person or entity that has an active exclusion on the System for Award Management (SAM) (www.sam.gov).

The recipient/contractor certifies that neither it nor its principals is presently excluded or disqualified from participation in this transaction by any Federal department or agency.

1.22 Equal Participation by Faith-Based Organizations USNGO (JUN 2016)

a. Faith-Based Organizations Encouraged

Faith-based organizations are eligible, on the same basis as any other organization, to participate in any USAID program for which they are otherwise eligible. Neither USAID nor entities that make and administer subawards of USAID funds shall discriminate for or against an organization on the basis of the organization’s religious character or affiliation. Additionally, religious organizations shall not be disqualified from participating in USAID programs because such organizations are motivated or influenced by religious faith to provide social services, or because of their religious character or affiliation.

Decisions about awards of USAID financial assistance must be free from political interference or even the appearance of such interference. Awards must be made on the basis of merit, not the basis of the religious affiliation of an applicant, or lack thereof. A faith-based organization may continue to carry out its mission, including the definition, development, practice, and expression of its religious beliefs, within the limits contained in this provision. For more information, see the USAID Faith-Based and Community Initiatives Web site and 22 CFR 205.1.

b. Explicitly Religious Activities Prohibited.

(1) Explicitly religious activities include activities that involve overt religious content such as worship, religious instruction, prayer, or proselytization.

(2) The seller must not engage in explicitly religious activities as part of the programs or services directly funded with financial assistance from USAID. If the recipient engages in explicitly religious activities, the activities must be offered separately, in time or location, from any programs or services directly funded by this award, and participation must be voluntary for beneficiaries of the programs or services funded with USAID assistance.

(3) These restrictions apply equally to religious and secular organizations. All organizations that participate in USAID programs, as recipients or subawardees, including religious ones, must carry out eligible activities in accordance with all program requirements and other applicable requirements governing USAID-funded activities.

(4) Notwithstanding the restrictions of b.(1) and (2), a religious organization that participates in USAID-funded programs or services:

(i) May retain its independence and may continue to carry out its mission, including the definition, development, practice, and expression of its religious beliefs, provided that it does not use direct financial assistance from USAID to support or engage in any explicitly religious activities or in any other manner prohibited by law;

(ii) May use space in its facilities, without removing religious art, icons, scriptures, or other religious symbols; and

(iii) May retain its authority over its internal governance, and may retain religious terms in its organization’s name, select its board members on a religious basis, and include religious references in its organization’s mission statements and other governing documents.

c. Implementation in accordance with the Establishment Clause: Nothing in this provision shall be construed as authorizing the use of USAID funds for activities that are not permitted by Establishment Clause jurisprudence or otherwise by law.

d. Discrimination Based on Religion Prohibited: The recipient must not, in providing services, discriminate against a program beneficiary or potential program beneficiary on the basis of religion or religious belief, refusal to hold a religious belief, or a refusal to attend or participate in a religious practice.

e. A religious organization’s exemption from the Federal prohibition on employment discrimination on the basis of religion, set forth in Sec. 702(a) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. 2000e–1 is not forfeited when the organization receives financial assistance from USAID.
f. The Secretary of State may waive the requirements of this section in whole or in part, on a case-by-case basis, where the Secretary determines that such waiver is necessary to further the national security or foreign policy interests of the United States.

1.23 Marking and Public Communications Under USAID Funded Assistance USNGO (DEC 2014)

a. The USAID Identity is the official marking for USAID, comprised of the USAID logo and brandmark with the tagline "from the American people," unless amended by USAID to include additional or substitute use of a logo or seal and tagline representing a presidential initiative or other high level interagency initiative. The USAID Identity (including any required presidential initiative or related identity) is on the USAID Web site at www.usaid.gov/branding. Recipients must use the USAID Identity, of a size and prominence equivalent to or greater than any other identity or logo displayed, to mark the following:

(1) Programs, projects, activities, public communications, and commodities partially or fully funded by USAID;

(2) Program, project, or activity sites funded by USAID, including visible infrastructure projects or other physical sites;

(3) Technical assistance, studies, reports, papers, publications, audio-visual productions, public service announcements, Web sites/Internet activities, promotional, informational, media, or communications products funded by USAID;

(4) Commodities, equipment, supplies, and other materials funded by USAID, including commodities or equipment provided under humanitarian assistance or disaster relief programs; and

(5) Events financed by USAID, such as training courses, conferences, seminars, exhibitions, fairs, workshops, press conferences and other public activities. If the USAID Identity cannot be displayed, the recipient is encouraged to otherwise acknowledge USAID and the support of the American people.

b. The seller must implement the requirements of this provision following the approved Marking Plan in the award.

c. The ROP-CHAMP may require a preproduction review of program materials and "public communications" (documents and messages intended for external distribution, including but not limited to correspondence; publications; studies; reports; audio visual productions; applications; forms; press; and promotional materials) used in connection with USAID-funded programs, projects or activities, for compliance with an approved Marking Plan.

d. The seller is encouraged to give public notice of the receipt of this award and announce progress and accomplishments. The recipient must provide copies of notices or announcements to the Agreement Officer's Representative (AOR) and to USAID's Office of Legislative and Public Affairs in advance of release, as practicable. Press releases or other public notices must include a statement substantially as follows: "The U.S. Agency for International Development administers the U.S. foreign assistance program providing economic and humanitarian assistance in more than 80 countries worldwide."

e. Any "public communication" in which the content has not been approved by USAID must contain the following disclaimer:
"This study/report/audio/visual/other information/media product (specify) is made possible by the generous support of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The contents are the responsibility of (insert recipient name) and do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government."

f. The seller must provide the ROP-CHAMP with two copies of all program and communications materials produced under this award.

g. The ROP-CHAMP may request an exception from USAID marking requirements when USAID marking requirements would:

(1) Compromise the intrinsic independence or neutrality of a program or materials where independence or neutrality is an inherent aspect of the program and materials;

(2) Diminish the credibility of audits, reports, analyses, studies, or policy recommendations whose data or findings must be seen as independent;
(3) Undercut host-country government "ownership" of constitutions, laws, regulations, policies, studies, assessments, reports, publications, surveys or audits, public service announcements, or other communications; (4) Impair the functionality of an item; (5) Incur substantial costs or be impractical; (6) Offend local cultural or social norms, or be considered inappropriate; or (7) Conflict with international law.

h. The seller may submit a waiver request of the marking requirements of this provision or the Marking Plan, through the ROP-CHAMP, when USAID-required marking would pose compelling political, safety, or security concerns, or have an adverse impact in the cooperating country.

(1) Approved waivers "flow down" to subawards and contracts unless specified otherwise. The waiver may also include the removal of USAID markings already affixed, if circumstances warrant.

(2) USAID determinations regarding waiver requests are subject to appeal by the seller, by submitting a written request to reconsider the determination to the cognizant Assistant Administrator.

i. The seller must include the following marking provision in any subawards entered into under this award: "As a condition of receipt of this subaward, marking with the USAID Identity of a size and prominence equivalent to or greater than the seller, subrecipient's, other donor's, or third party's is required. In the event the seller chooses not to require marking with its own identity or logo by the subrecipient, USAID may, at its discretion, require marking by the subrecipient with the USAID Identity."

1.24 FLY AMERICA ACT RESTRICTIONS

(1) The seller must use U.S. Flag Air Carriers for all international air transportation (including personal effects) funded by this award pursuant to the Fly America Act and its implementing regulations to the extent service by such carriers is available.

(2) In the event that the seller selects a carrier other than a U.S. Flag Air Carrier for international air transportation, in order for the costs of such international air transportation to be allowable, the seller must document such transportation in accordance with this provision and maintain such documentation pursuant to the Standard Provision, "Accounting, Audit and Records." The documentation must use one of the following reasons or other exception under the Fly America Act:

(i) The recipient uses a European Union (EU) flag air carrier, which is an airline operating from an EU country that has signed the US-EU "Open Skies" agreement (http://www.state.gov/e/eb/rls/othr/ata/i/ic/170684.htm).

(ii) Travel to or from one of the following countries on an airline of that country when no city pair fare is in effect for that leg (see http://apps.fas.gsa.gov/citypairs/search/):

(iii) Only for a particular leg of a route on which no US Flag Air Carrier provides service on that route;

(iv) For a trip of 3 hours or less, the use of a US Flag Air Carrier at least doubles the travel time;

(v) If the US Flag Air Carrier offers direct service, use of the US Flag Air Carrier would increase the travel time by more than 24 hours; or

(vi) If the US Flag Air Carrier does not offer direct service,

a. Use of the US Flag Air Carrier increases the number of aircraft changes by 2 or more,

b. Use of the US Flag Air Carrier extends travel time by 6 hours or more, or

a. Use of the US Flag Air Carrier requires a layover at an overseas interchange of 4 hours or more.

c. DEFINITIONS

The terms used in this provision have the following meanings:

(1) "Travel costs" means expenses for transportation, lodging, subsistence (meals and incidentals), and related expenses incurred by employees who are on travel status on official business of the recipient for any travel outside the country in which the organization is located.
