Helping children worldwide. tdh.ch

Expression of Interest (Eoi)

N°001-EOI-KBL-2019

Since its creation in 1960, the mission of Terre des hommes Foundation Lausanne (Tdh) has been to come to the aid of children in need. It endeavors at all times to defend the rights of children, in times of war and natural disasters, or in less publicized situations of distress.

Today, the Terre des hommes Foundation is a significant force among children's aid organizations in Switzerland and throughout the world. It is the largest non-governmental organization (NGO) for children's aid in Switzerland. Tdh has development projects and emergency relief programs in more than 30 countries. This engagement is financed by individual and institutional donations, of which 86% flows directly into the Tdh programmers.

Terre des hommes was founded in 1960. The values and mission of Terre des hommes remain the same as those that founder Edmond Kaiser Set down in the 1960 charter. Over the last more than fifty years, Terre des hommes has developed in two core areas: healthcare and child protection. Every year, Tdh offers sustainable solutions and a better future for over one million children and their relatives.

Terre des hommes (Tdh) has been active in Afghanistan since 1995 and carries out projects related to child protection, mother and child health, rural economic development. In 2014, more of 108,000 people benefited from activities of Tdh. Afghanistan has been a country in conflict for more than 30 years, leading to poor infrastructure and services. There are numerous security risks for the civil population, leading to large-scale displacement and numerous internally displaced people camps, especially in Kabul. Access to basic services such as education and healthcare is far from guaranteed. The social protection net doesn't exist, and in general, the social agenda is not recognized as a priority.
