CONFLICT OF INTEREST DECLARATION FOR THE WIE SUBCONTRACTOR

The following steps outline WIE's Contracts selection process and should be understood by all Offerors to ensure the transparency of awards and avoid conflict of interest.

1. All Requests for Quotations (RFQs) are announced on Afghanbids.com, and bids uploaded by offerors cannot be accessed by anyone before the bid closing date.
2. Once the quotations are received, technical and cost proposals are separated. Technical proposals are scored by an evaluation committee which consists of technical professionals. Cost proposals are evaluated for reasonableness, accuracy, and completeness.
3. The best value quotation is selected based on a combination of the technical score and the cost.
4. No activity can be started until vetting and other formalities are completed and both WIE and the awardee have signed a formal contract.
5. No one from WIE can terminate the contract, stop, or delay payment without cause. For example, if gross misconduct is discovered in the implementation process, WIE has the right to suspend the contract in question until an official investigation of the facts is complete.
6. At no time is it appropriate or legal for contractors or beneficiaries to offer any WIE staff member commissions, kickbacks, or gifts of any kind. If a WIE employee is found taking commissions, kickbacks, gifts or engaging in fraud of any kind their employment contract with WIE will be immediately terminated and their actions will be reported to USAID's Office of the Inspector General (OIG). WIE's policy against fraud exists throughout the life of the contract and beyond. Even if the contract is closed, if any party is found guilty of fraud WIE will make a full report to the OIG which may choose to investigate and to prosecute guilty parties to the fullest extent of the law.
7. Neither payment nor preference shall be made by either the Offeror, or by any DAI staff, in an attempt to affect the results of the award. DAI treats all reports of possible fraud/abuse very seriously. Acts of fraud or corruption will not be tolerated, and DAI employees and/or subcontractors/grantees/vendors who engage in such activities will face serious consequences. Any such practice constitutes an unethical, illegal, and corrupt practice and such practice may result in the cancellation of the procurement and disqualification of the Offeror's participation in this, and future, procurements. Violators will be reported to USAID, and as a result, may be reported to the U.S. Department of Justice to be included in a Restricted Parties list, preventing them from participating in future U.S. Government business.

Offerors must provide full, accurate and complete information in response to this solicitation. The penalty for materially false responses is prescribed in Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

In addition, DAI takes the payment of USAID funds to pay Terrorists, or groups supporting Terrorists, or other parties in exchange for protection very seriously. Should the Terrorist, groups or other parties attempt to extort/demand payment from your organization you are asked to immediately report the incident to DAI's Ethics and Compliance Anonymous Hotline at the contacts described in this clause.

1) Whistleblower Protections Act

All employees of Subcontractors, Grantees and Vendors who currently or have previously conducted work under [insert name of project] are protected from reprisal by US law for disclosure of certain information. The Whistleblower protections in 41 U.S.C. §4712 state that an "employee of a contractor, subcontractor, grantee [or sub-grantee] may not be discharged, demoted, or otherwise discriminated against as a reprisal for "whistleblowing."

Whistleblowing is defined as making a disclosure "that the employee reasonably believes" is evidence of any of the following:

- Gross mismanagement of a Federal contract or grant;
- A gross waste of Federal funds;
- An abuse of authority relating to a Federal contract or grant;
- A substantial and specific danger to public health or safety; or,
- A violation of law, rule, or regulation related to a Federal contract or grant (including the competition for, or negotiation of, a contract or grant).

Whistleblower protections cannot be waived by any agreement, policy, form or condition of employment. To meet the standards of this law, the employee's disclosure must be made to:

- A Member of the US Congress, or a representative of a US Congressional Committee;
- An Inspector General;
- The US Government Accountability Office;
- A US Government employee responsible for contract or grant oversight or management at the relevant agency;
- A US court or grand jury; or,
- A management official or other employee of DAI, the subcontractor, grantee, or sub-grantee who has the responsibility to investigate, discover or address misconduct.

In summary, the Act says that a person who believes that he or she has been subjected to a reprisal prohibited by this Act may submit a complaint to the Inspector General but not more than three years after the date on which the alleged reprisal took place. The Inspector General will make a determination or issue a report on findings to USAID. USAID will determine from this determination or report whether there is sufficient basis to conclude that the contractor or grantee concerned has subjected the complainant to a reprisal prohibited by the Act and shall either issue an order denying relief or shall take one or more of the following actions:

(A) Order the contractor or grantee to take affirmative action to abate (lessen) the reprisal.

(B) Order the contractor or grantee to reinstate the person to the position that the person held before the reprisal, together with compensatory damages (including back pay), employment benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment that would apply to the person in that position if the reprisal had not been taken.

(C) Order the contractor or grantee to pay the complainant an amount equal to the aggregate amount of all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees and expert witnesses' fees) that were reasonably incurred by the complainant for, or in connection with, bringing the complaint regarding the reprisal.
