

A2.1.1

Community center (RCC + Isogamy roof)

- This structure has been considered for gathering community and making decisions on public affairs.
- It includes one meeting room, one office room, one literacy room and library. The size of each room differs based on need.
- The roofing has been considered reinforced concrete and above it bitumen tar insulation (isogamy).
- The walls will be burnt brick with cement mortar. the thickness of the walls should not be less than 35 cm.
- The floor has just plane cement concrete.
- The window glasses thickness will not be less than 4 mm.
- Inside painting of the walls will be plastic painting; outside will be plain painting and the doors and window oil painting. All the steel works should be painted with red oxide.
- Wall plastering should not be less than 1.5 cm and plaster on RCC should not be less than 6 mm